iMUCHA SHOW

Meet the painter who wanted to change the world successfully with a pencil in his hand. The fateful battle of good and evil. An extraordinary multimedia show accompanied with original music by the world-famous Astor Piazzollo. A young book artist and comic from New York falls in love with a French girl who looks like she stepped out of a Mucha poster. His mysterious and somewhat terrifying journey to search for that beautiful girl from the past begins. The iMucha project has the world's largest collection of original posters, where the giant canvases of the Slavic epic comes to life for the first time in a elaborate animation, together with comics, original music, dance, acrobatics and breathtaking scenography, draw people into the ancient battle through the forces of creation and destruction.

Pierce Brosnan's voice gracefully guides you through the show!
